“Meeting the Needs of the District’s Elderly”

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the District of Columbia Office on Aging is to advocate, plan, implement, and monitor programs in health, education, employment, and social services which promotes longevity, independence, dignity, and choice for our senior citizens.

D.C. Office on Aging

The Office on Aging is the District of Columbia's Agency on Aging that oversees direct services to persons 60 and older through a Senior Service Network. Within the Senior Service Network are eight community-based agencies, funded by the Office on Aging, to provide nutritious and tasty meals, social and recreational activities, as well as information on staying well. However, seniors are required to become registered participants in order to use the services. In-house, the Office on Aging operates two direct services programs: the Senior Employment and Training Program and the Information and Assistance Unit. The Office on Aging also oversees two nursing homes within the District. Other services provided through the community agencies include: Adult Day Care; Adult Education; Emergency Shelter; Health Insurance Counseling; In-Home Relief; Legal Services; and Transportation.

Office on Aging Based Programs

Information and Assistance

Information and Assistance operates Monday through Friday, 8:30 am - 5:00 pm, excluding holidays. Seniors, family members, caregivers and others may call (202) 724-5626 to inquire about or access services that are available to seniors in the District of Columbia. Walk-ins are welcome.

Job Training and Employment Program

The Older Workers Employment and Training Program (OWETP) assists District residents 55 years of age and older with finding jobs. The older worker gains additional income, an expanded support system and personal growth. The employment and training program may be contacted by calling (202) 724-3662

Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC)

This is a one-stop for services assisting the District's elderly and persons with disabilities in maximizing their independence and improving their quality of life by linking them with a range of private and public services in one single location. Over a dozen government agencies, private and non-profit organizations are collaborating with the Aging and Disability Resource Center to provide District residents with a simple and streamlined process for getting the guidance and information they need. For more information on the D.C. ADRC, please contact us by TTY: (202) 724-8925, toll free: 1.877.919 ADRC (2372), OR JUST DIAL 311. You can also visit the ADRC online at www.adrc.dc.gov

Outreach and Publications

State Plan on Aging

District of Columbia State Plan on Aging outlines the current and planned efforts of the D.C. Office on Aging to meet the needs of District of Columbia residents age 60 and older and persons with disabilities. For more information contact (202) 724-5626

Spotlight on Aging

The Spotlight on Aging is a monthly insert in the area's Senior Beacon Newspaper that is available at senior centers, housing, businesses and other places throughout the District as well as online via the Office on Aging Website, www.dcoa.dc.gov. The insert highlights activities, special alerts and programs and services that serve District of Columbia senior citizens.

D.C. Office on Aging Nursing Facilities

Washington Center for Aging Services
2601 18th Street, NE Washington, D.C. 20018 (Ward 5)

In July of 2010, the District/Office on Aging entered a long-term ground lease with Stoddard Baptist Foundation to operate and manage the Washington Center for Aging Services (WCAS). Previously, the District managed a contract with VMT to operate the facility on behalf of the city. The decision to move forward with this new public-private partnership does not change the fact that the District still owns the facility. WCAS will continue to be a Medicare/Medicaid certified facility with 259-beds that provides skilled and intermediate nursing care to residents 60 years of age and older. The facility will also continue to provide geriatric day care services (adult day care) called "Center Care", an Alzheimer's special care unit, and offer respite care or short-term relief for caregivers, based on availability. According to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), the nursing home has a 3 out of 5 star rating. The nursing home ratings change periodically; therefore, please visit www.medicare.gov for a more current evaluation. or additional information about this facility, please call the WCAS Nursing Home Administrator at (202) 541-6200.

Unique Residential Care Center
901 First Street, NW Washington, D.C. 20001 (Ward 2)

In December of 2010, the District/Office on Aging entered a long-term ground lease with Vital Management Team (VMT) to operate and manage JB Johnson Nursing Center (JBJ). Previously, the District managed a contract with VMT to operate the facility on behalf of the city. JB Johnson, a 230-bed Medicare/Medicaid certified facility, will continue to be a District-owned nursing facility. It will also continue to provide skilled and intermediate nursing care to residents as young as 18 years of age.

According to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), this nursing facility also has a 3 out of 5 star rating. The nursing home ratings change periodically; therefore please visit www.medicare.gov for a more current evaluation. For additional information about this facility, please call the JB Johnson Nursing Home Administrator at (202) 535-1100.

ADULT DAY CARE SERVICES

Adult day care programs provide specialized care for dependent individuals at-risk of going into an institution. Services may include medical, social, therapeutic, and recreational support in a supervised setting. Meals and transportation are provided. There is no fee for service. However, donations are encouraged.
